

Adam Boychuk

Adam grew up dancing with Selkirk & District, alongside his older sister and younger brother, before moving on to be an ensemble member of Troyanda where he has been dancing since 2012. He had the opportunity to travel to Ukraine with the group in August 2017 to perform in festivals and take part in workshops. He has been fortunate to train under talented choreographers from out of province including Anna and Vasyl Kanevets, Serhij Koroliuk and Vincent Rees. Through Ukrainian dance, Adam has been able to perform across Canada, the United States, Croatia, Austria, Hungary, Ukraine, and most recently, as a guest performer in the Royal Winnipeg Ballet's production of The Nutcracker.

Adam graduated from the University of Winnipeg with a Bachelor of Science in Kinesiology specializing in Athletic Therapy. He currently works for Canada Life as a Case Manger.
