

Olivia Dubeski

Olivia began her dance career at Selkirk and District at age seven, alongside her five year old brother, John. She continued through the school—eventually making her way up to Fialka, where she danced for five years. In 2009, Olivia auditioned for the Troyanda Ukrainian Dance Ensemble and has been dancing with them ever since. Over the years, she has danced under the Artistic Direction of Tom Mokry, Liana Stecky, Kristina Frykas, Andrew Chubey, Paul Droniuk, and Jenn Droniuk. Through Ukrainian dance, Olivia has been able to perform across Canada, the United States, Colombia, and Ukraine. Some of her most memorable performances include performing Trepak in the Royal Winnipeg Ballet’s production of The Nutcracker and performing in the International Ukrainian Dance and Culture Festival in Lviv, Ukraine.

Olivia also has a passion for Gymnastics, and is a NCCP certified Gymnastics coach with over 15 years of experience.

In 2017, Olivia graduated from the University of Winnipeg with a Bachelor of Arts degree, majoring in Conflict Resolution Studies. Since 2016, she has been employed by the Government of Manitoba and is currently the Executive Administrative Officer in the Office of the Deputy Minister of Housing, Additions and Homelessness.
